Remark Test Grading Cloud can connect directly to your Blackboard account so teachers can seamlessly send grades to Blackboard. Your Remark administrator must first set up a link to your Blackboard server. Then teachers can link classes and tests to Blackboard to send information between the two applications.

Note: The Blackboard Connector can be purchased through our sales department. Setting up the Blackboard Link in Remark Test Grading Cloud Please use the following instructions to link Remark to your Blackboard account. You must be an administrator in Remark Test Grading Cloud to complete these steps. In Blackboard This process only needs to be completed once per Blackboard instance by the Blackboard administrator. Navigate to the "Administrator Panel." Click on "System Admin" in the header bar. Under "Integrations" select "REST API Integrations." Click on "Create Integration." Enter c6f880d1-623e-49d1-9d2f-4c765a67d3d6 as the "Application ID." Select yourself as the "Learn User." Ensure "End User Access" is set to "Yes." Ensure "Authorized to Act As User" is "Yes." Please see the corresponding Blackboard documentation for more details if needed. In Remark Test Grading Cloud Click "Account Dashboard." Click the three dots all the way to the right and choose "Account Settings." Select the "Learning Management Systems" tab. In the "Enable LMS Integration: card, select "Blackboard" in the dropdown. Enter the URL of your Blackboard instance into the "URL" field. Click "Save." Your Remark account is now linked to your Blackboard account. Give Permissions You should be prompted to automatically to give teachers the appropriate permissions to add students to the system. If you add teachers later or do not see this prompt, you can give teachers permission to add students to the system via the Account Security settings. In Remark Test Grading Cloud, Click "Account Dashboard." Click the three dots all the way to the right and choose "Account Security." Click the "Manage Students for Account" group. Select the teachers you wish to be in this group. Click the "Save Group Membership" button. Teachers are now able to link classes and students from Blackboard to Remark Test Grading Cloud. Click here for more information on using the Blackboard Connector. If desired, you can import your teachers using the standard Remark Test Grading Cloud import. Once imported, teachers can begin linking their classes to Blackboard.
